TO: Denise Keane
FROM: R. A. Pages RAP
SUBJECT: Richmond ETS Conference, Oct 20th

DATE: 16 Oct 92

Mayada received more info via fax from Kay Packett of TI. (Unfortunately, it's already almost illegible on my copy.)

The conference is being held under the sponsorship of the Virginia Department of Health, Office of Health Education.

Speakers:

Bernard S. Cohen, Attorney, House of Delegates, Virginia General Assembly
Kevin Cooper, M.D., Medical College of Virginia (Medical spokesperson for a Richmond tv station and long active on behalf of the VA Lung Association).
Fran Du Melle, Coalition on Smoking or Health, Washington DC
"Spokesperson, Office of Health & Environmental Assessment" (No further info).

The items to be discussed by these people:

"Health Implications of ETS"
"Scientific Findings on ETS"
"Legal Implications of ETS"
"Panel Discussion Questions and Answers"

The purpose of the conference is make information on the revised draft EPA risk assessment on ETS "available for use by businesses, public health organizations, health care entities and others who may be affected." It will last from 10:00 A.M. to 2:30 P.M. at the Holiday Inn Central, Richmond. A second session will be held in Roanoke on Oct 27th.

As I told you, TI is planning on sending two consultants (Max Layard and Jim Kilpatrick) to the meeting as well as someone from Covington & Burling.
